Saturday

From 10.00am

EMPORIUM OPEN – Join the world's friendliest queue, and pick up your meal tickets at the counter.

Nanny Ogg's Boozy Figgins, on sale at the Lunch Box – we've taste tested a few and they are stonkingly good.

The Ankh-Morpork League of Temperance – black Ribboners can enjoy a fix of mulled wine and coffee, on sale at the suitably elegant Divine Wines.

AT THE DOLPHIN HOTEL:

Dealers Den in the old Skittle Alley – come and support these artificers, and let them show you the way of their craft (dealers to set up from 9.00, clear down at 5.00)

Games Hall in the rear of the Stables Bar. Watched over by Madame Aine, with Martin Wallace of Treefrog Games, designer of Ankh-Morpork the Board Game, demonstrating the dark arts of cheating, and the possibility of testing some new games fodder.

Scumble on sale at the Mended drum Bar – Beware, loss of vision, dribbling and mild groping may occur.

AT THE BEAR:

From 10.00am

The chance to journey with one Sir Terry Pratchett on his noble quest to bring light to the citizens of Burnham-on-sea. Seven pairs of bus tickets are up for grabs.

Raffle tickets will be on sale from a man, quite possibly in a dress, known simply as "Davina". Tickets cost £3.50 with all proceeds going to Secret World Wildlife Rescue.

Lord Hong's Kirigami Masterclass – learn the ancient Agatean art of paper meddling and create some Discworldian art for your mantelpiece.

Knitter's corner – expert knitting witches will be on hand to guide you in the arts of tangling wool. A place for agony aunts and budding seamstresses to natter and stitch.

Stamp Swap – pitch up and organise your effects, or learn from the masters of flatly about the wonders of Discworld Stamps.

11.30AM MR BOGGIS will give a cordial welcome address and instructional talk to guests ancient and modern on the workings of the Thieves Guild. We recommend this to all 'new' guests as it will provide not just erudite entertainment but useful tips which will go towards making their stay slightly more 'interesting'.

2.00PM THE GRAND RAFFLE DRAW – Be Gathered in the Sweetman hall of the Bear for the moment of truth: does your bum have a seat on the legendary voyage to Burnham?? Bus departs at 2.30, to return for the Sausage Supper.

3.00PM MAPPING FANTASY: a fireside chat with Bernard Pearson on the glorious upcoming, brand-new Map of Ankh-Morpork.

4.00PM SECRET HOGFATHER – Have you been naughty or nice?? If you signed up on our forum, here's your chance to find out. Or just come along to see if he's really real!

7.00pm for 7.30pm The traditional Sausage Supper! Gather in your allocated hostelry for a hearty dose of festive cheer!

9.00PM

Civic announcements, followed by Open Mic Maskerade – hop on stage and confound us with your diverse talents! Includes a featured appearance by the head of the Lancre Morrismen, on loan from the Home for Reformed Accordionists.
