According to the man himself 'Now I have a confession to make.

It was like this .....it was hot and I needed an apple drink, so I got a jug of 'apple juice' sent down from Uncle Toms (they do this for me, bless them).

Well I was finishing off a certain stamp before getting it to the printers and - well spelling has not ever been my strong suit - and I didn't get it checked by a grown up - and er, I might have just been a bit confused because of a slight over indulgence of the apple juice - and .....

Well - er - There have been occasions when miss spellings have appeared on round world stamp, so I am not alone but .....

All the grown ups here have now said that I am not being allowed to sign off any stamps without their written approval and I am confined to barracks on Friday's meeting of the South Somerset Mountain Rescue Team training night in Uncle Tom's next Friday evening.

I suppose we could do a re-print and put it as a special little gift in the next LBE, what do you think?

Oh, the stamp in question?

You ruddy well find it'
