A most unusual stamp with reports of transfiguration within the engraving. The TOA has been printed in at least three separate runs. The first run can be distinguished most easily by the lack of any printing on the selvedge (or selvage, the edges of the sheet) while the second version does have printing. The latest print run includes the new s and has an upside down falling man in the picture in the gutter.

The left side of the gutter reads: ANKH-MORPORK - THE YEAR OF THE PRAWN while the right side reads: TEEMER & SPOOLS - TOWER OF ART - ONE DOLLAR.

The Special Edition 50p Cabbage Green known as the ‘The Skunk Stamp’, a variant of the 50p cabbage green, ‘perfumed’ with the scent of cabbage created by Terry himself (aided and assisted by Rob and Bernard) and sealed in jars with City Watch forensic department seal and evidence label. The stamps were printed with a cabbage-based glue to be sent to Ankh-Morpork expatriates living in foreign climes. The glue included a distillate of Kohl Rabi, Cabbage and Cauliflower. Apart from the pungency, the smell is said to have a curious pervasive, flatulent quality that attaches itself to anything nearby.

As far as is known, no letter with one of these affixed has ever reached its destination

The 10P Red Morporkia is known as the 10P 'Cock Up' because it was produced by mistake. It had been designed for the 'Ride to Sto Lat' Cover and after it had printed it was realised that in the book 'Going Postal' the stamps on that cover were described as five 2 Penny red Stamps and a 1 Penny Patrician.

The 2p red patrician stamp had to be produced to replace them. The 10p 'Cock Up' was given away with issue 4 of the Stanley Howler journal. Only 500 exist.

In shades of khaki, peach, green and black on a pale khaki background, illustrating the many unusual ways that Discworld scouts amuse themselves, and giving a whole new meaning to 'Bob-a-Job'.

Each of the stamps is different and should be treated as an individual stamp. However the stamps all appear on the same sheet. So I decided they should be treated as variants of each other.

All that said there is also a true Sport in the pack.

Grey Greens on Parchment Field Llamedos Jones in Hat, Palm Tree Dexter with Motto WITH A SONG AND A SICKLE Banner POST OFFICE Inferior 1$ in Oval Frame Base Sinister Chief Curved Banner with ANKH-MORPORK Base Banner with CELEBRATING OUR GREAT EXPLORERS LLAMEDOS JONES ENDEAVOURING TO PERSEVERE ONE DOLLAR

Llamedos Jones, an explorer from Llamedos. He was hampered in his voyages of discovery by the fact he wasn't really looking for new lands to conquer: his main priority was evangelising his sect of Strict Observance Druidism to the heathen, ie everyone who wasn't already a Strict Observance Druid.

So he would set off in a small leather and wicker coracle, equipped with nothing more than a holy sickle, a sack of mistletoe, a small portable stone circle of the laptop variety, and a harmonium for the hymn singing.

Unfortunately, he could travel for no further than three and a half days in any direction before being compelled to return to Llamedos for the necessarily strict druidic observances and male voice choir practice once a week.

He was finally given dispensation by the circle elders to miss services and is believed to have discovered the Brown Islands by the very practical technique of continuing in a straight line until he hit something.

Purples on Parchment Field Lady Alice Venturi Profile Dexter, Palm Tree Dexter with Motto A CUT ABOVE THE REST Banner POST OFFICE Inferior 1$ in Oval Frame Base Sinister surmounted by Idol carrying Phallus Chief Curved Banner with ANKH-MORPORK Base Banner with CELEBRATING OUR GREAT EXPLORERS LADY ALICE VENTURI HEROINE AMONG THE HEATHEN ONE DOLLAR

Lady Alice Venturi gained access to the family fortunes late in life, which allowed her to travel in what she coyly referred to as the 'Dark Hinterland' of Klatch and Howondaland.

In pursuit of the ethnography and anthropology, she travelled widely among the sort of peoples who people in Ankh-Morpork would consider to be backward and primitive, meticulously collecting details of their quaint and folklorique ethnic pathways.

The extensive records she brought back were used to illuminate her public speaking engagements, which were inevitably sell-outs.

Part of the reason why her talks were sell-outs with standing room only may be gleaned from the titles of her books: The Harem Frescoes of Old Klatch, Interesting Customs Among the N'Kouf, and Travels in the Dark Hinterland.

The few existing copies of The Harem Frescoes of Old Klatch, Interesting Customs Among the N'Kouf which did not spontaneously combust on printing, are now sought after among the more discerning collector. Her collection of tribal fetishes and ceremonial objects is locked up in a secure vault: a typical example is labelled Personal Ornament of T'etse Males Over The Age of Thirteen .

There is a suspicion that as the tribes got to know her, some of the more inventive and ingenious traditional ceremonies were devised especially for her, amidst much amusement...

Mud Browns on Parchment Field Sir Roderick Purdeigh in Pith Helmet, Palm Tree Dexter with Motto FOR HONOUR Banner POST OFFICE Inferior with Perched Parrot, 1$ in Oval Frame Base Sinister Chief Curved Banner with ANKH-MORPORK Base Banner with CELEBRATING OUR GREAT EXPLORERS SIR RODERICK PURDEIGH SURVEYOR OF THE CIRCLE SEA ONE DOLLAR.

Sir Roderick Purdeigh, a well-known, but not terribly bright, explorer, who spent many years looking for XXXX, and never found it. According to the Dean of Unseen University, he once got lost in his own bedroom (in the wardrobe in fact).

Despite his failure to find XXXX, let alone their fabled companion Foggy Islands, he is listed in Wasport's Lives of the Very Dull People. He is understood to have spent several years going round and round in circles in the Circle Sea, just out of sight of land, under the mistaken impression that he was circumferentially navigating the Disc. He returned to Ankh-Morpork claiming to have proven that the Disc had a circumference of several million miles...

He met an untimely end in Bhangbhangduc at the hands of the natives. We know that Purdeigh was somewhat intolerant of untidy lazy slackers and foreigners, believing any little difficulties could be resolved by a few prods of the blunt end of his walking-stick to get them to shape up and show some backbone. As his last, sadly unfinished, book, The Man of the Woods, relates, Purdeigh was so incensed at the comportment of a group of red-haired slovenly rascals that he resolved to teach them a jolly good lesson with the said walking-stick.

We know today he had not encountered men, so much as the great ape, Pongo Pongo. Whoops.

According to the man himself 'Now I have a confession to make.

It was like thisit was hot and I needed an apple drink, so I got a jug of 'apple juice' sent down from Uncle Toms (they do this for me, bless them).

Well I was finishing off a certain stamp before getting it to the printers and - well spelling has not ever been my strong suit - and I didn't get it checked by a grown up - and er, I might have just been a bit confused because of a slight over indulgence of the apple juice - and Well - er - There have been occasions when miss spellings have appeared on round world stamp, so I am not alone but

All the grown ups here have now said that I am not being allowed to sign off any stamps without their written approval and I am confined to barracks on Friday's meeting of the South Somerset Mountain Rescue Team training night in Uncle Tom's next Friday evening.

I suppose we could do a re-print and put it as a special little gift in the next LBE, what do you think?

Oh, the stamp in question?

You ruddy well find it'

The Elim, a denomination unique to Ankh-Morpork. Representing the smallest unit of currency in the city, or one sixteenth of a penny to be exact. Their coin counterpart may buy you:

'A candle stub, a small potato that's only a bit green. or an apple core that ain't been entirely et' (from Making Money).

In postal terms these pretty little stamps would likely cover all the little items that needed to travel the shortest distance in the longest time, or simply play their part in the de facto currency of stamps among the inhabitants of Discworld's mightiest city.

Obverse Black on Cream Field wording 'AFFIX STAMP HERE' with various designs Reverse various hues on white field Shield with motto 'Beggars' Chief and bearing the motto 'Moneta supervacanea magister?' and 'GUILD' Base

This is a Discworld Cinderella stamp.

During printing of the reverse, gummed 'shield' side on the stamp the gum affected the printer causing a variation in the colour and ultimately breaking the digital printer.

There are five designs on the obverse; Hatched, Rectangle, Perforated, Cornered and Art Deco.

There were originally to be three colours, Green, Red and Blue on the reverse but with the gum problem the each colour was transformed creating three extras hues Lime, Orange and Blue-Green.

The stamp size is varied.

The design in the shield is not that appears as the arms in the New Discworld Companion. The reverse side images are courtesy of Denise Roberts.

Whilst looking for the sport Larry discovered that the bars at the bottom of the stamp varied. Is this a secret message for a new invention that will open letters but can be used as a weapon or just an order from the Klatch take-away?

Transworld, the publishers, had asked me to design a stamp to go on the invitations for the Launch of Snuff, featuring 'the boat'.... I took this to mean The Wonderful Fanny, so I dutifully got cracking on some designs, sent Peter a brief for the artwork (after he pointed out the mistakes on my first draft!). We took the design and the original painting over to Terry, he was very pleased and gave us the thumbs up (only cost us a bubble and squeak and a brandy). I contacted Transworld to tell them that I was about to send the Wonderful Fanny stamp over to them, to which they said... 'surely you mean the Roberta E Biscuit stamp'.... Bugger! I had failed to check which boat they actually meant. Out comes my colouring-in set, trying as hard as I could to match Peter's style for the first stamp, the ink did fly. Some hours later, the Roberta E Biscuit was done. However by this time they had seen the Wonderful Fanny stamp and were happy with it as it was, and decided to go with that. Hence, we ended up with a brace of boats for our range.
