positively, has to be a
frog by morning.

Buckets Kale Ale

Available near where quality beer is sold.

Getting a beer? Grab a Bucket. You know
you'll want one!

Lot: 1

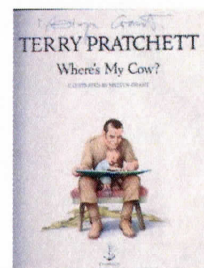

Film posters for the movie "Serenity". A regular sized one-sheet poster (portrait orientation for those not in the know!) and a promotional banner for the film (of the type hung from lobby ceilings) which is at least bus-shelter size.

Sold to

Final bid

Donated by Bezam of this parish - thanks Ian!

Lot: 2

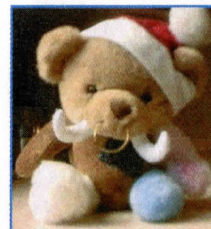

Very rare signed copy of "Where's My Cow?" Why's it rare? Because it isn't signed by Terry; it has been signed by the artist, Mel Grant. It is (as far as I am aware) one of only three signed copies in existence ANYWHERE.

Sold to

Final bid

Lot: 3

The first ever Hogthwatth Beathty! This is a picture of him on 14-Nov-2005; there are no guarantees a limb or two won't have been upgraded by the day of the auction

Sold to

Final bid

Donated by - well, it had to be, didn't it? - Igorbeathty and Mithuth Beathty

Lot: 4

Display case containing gem-quality specimen of cabbage rock. Not signed by anyone.

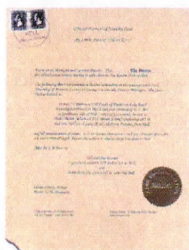

Sold to

Final bid

Donated by some daft bugger with more time than sense.

Lot: 5 One square inch of Hell. Title deed conferring ownership of said territory. Still warm...

Sold to
Final bid

Donated by the one-and-only CatchUp!

Lot: 6 A selection of postcards from Hell, all with Discworld stamps and franked in Hell. There are 7, so I'll reserve 3 for remote bidders and auction 4 locally on the "last X standing" mechanism (Yeah, technically not fair. So sue me.)

Sold to
Final bid

Donated by the one-and-only CatchUp!

Lot: 7 The Round The World LBE. Well, this one didn't quite make it all the way around, but it did do over 8000 miles. If the other RTW LBE makes it back in time, I may swap it in for this one, and send this one on another few journeys

Sold to
Final bid

Donated by - well, by an awful lot of people, in a way. Bernard donated the LBE and many Flatalists have parted with good money to forward it on its merry way. Thank you everyone!

Lot: 8 The Wadfest Big Brown Envelope. Legend has it that there were five of these magnificent creations, each bearing their identifying number in letters of magic fire, or Magic Marker at least. This is the unnumbered prototype.

Sold to
Final bid

Donated by Unohoo - cheers Pete!

Lot: 9 Two cards posted from Hell, with both DW and round-world stamps. One is a Kidby Greebo, the other a limited edition card issued with the videos of Soul Music. Two items, auctioned on the modified "Last 2 standing" principle, top bidder gets to pick.

Sold to
Final bid

Lot: 10 One of four beautiful prints. These gorgeous prints are not done justice by their pictures. Made with the blessing and copyright clearance of the Artificer Himself. Assassins 3p, 50cm c 40cm. The smaller stamp at the bottom IS a stamp.

Sold to
Final bid

Made and donated by out own Zephyr - many thanks Jenn!

Lot: 11 One of four beautiful prints. These gorgeous prints are not done justice by their pictures. Made with the blessing and copyright clearance of the Artificer Himself. Morporkia 10p. 43cm x 35cm.

Sold to
Final bid

Made and donated by out own Zephyr - many thanks Jenn!

Lot: 12 One of four beautiful prints. These gorgeous prints are not done justice by their pictures. Made with the blessing and copyright clearance of the Artificer Himself. Two Shirts 2p. 36cm x 28cm

Sold to
Final bid

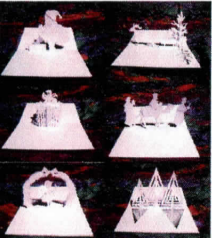

Made and donated by out own Zephyr - many thanks Jenn!

Lot: 13	One of four beautiful prints. These gorgeous prints are not done justice by their pictures. Made with the blessing and copyright clearance of the Artificer Himself. A miscellany! 36cm x 28cm	Sold to  Final bid
	Made and donated by out own Zephyr - many thanks Jenn!

Lot: 14	A real glass paperweight, containing a real Hogswatch stamp. And before you ask, no, I don't know how it got in there.	Sold to  Final bid
	Donated by steeljam of this parish - many thanks!

Lot: 15	A Sonky tin, devised, designed, created and filled by Buckjump. Note that the picture is of an existing tin, whereas a new one is being crafted for the auction. The tin is said to be fully functional, though for what function I didn't enquire.	Sold to  Final bid
	Buckjump made this. I deny all liability.

Lot: 16	Hand-made 3D Xmas cards crafted in high-quality cards. Now these are that rarest of rarities - card futures. We don't know how many will actually have come into existence by Hogswatch, but we'll auction them on the "last x standing" rule.	Sold to  Final bid
	Donated by mavzb - many thanks!

Lot: 17	The Patricians Travel Thud board made of black satin ribbons woven with black velvet ribbons on a black background. The black drawstrings draws this into a black (bit if a theme going here) pouch to hold the thud pieces and for ease of transport.	Sold to  Final bid
	Handmade by a seamstress!

Lot: 18	A signed giclee print from "Where's My Cow?" - no, not signed by him (though that could probably be arranged on the day) but signed by the artist Mel Grant.	Sold to  Final bid
	Donated and signed by the artist, Mel Grant

Lot: 19	Anoia, Rising from the Cutlery. This painting, as mentioned in Thud! is offered for auction as a framed print.	Sold to  Final bid
	Donated by the renowned forn artist, Worbleook and printed and framed by Kris.

Lot: 20	The Blue Triangle is one of the rarest stamps which you can find in an LBE. [drool]This lot comprises TWO Blue Triangles, still joined.[/drool] The stamps are joined along the long edge to make a square, and mounted in a Lucite display block	Sold to  Final bid
	Donated by the inimitable Bernard & Isobel

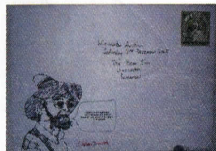

Lot: 21	The Edwards International Collection which comprises 30 envelopes posted from around the world with a selection of different local stamps/franks/discworld stamps. They include Japan, Botswana, Ghana, Zanzibar, most of Europe and the Vatican.	Sold to
	Final bid
	Donated by Colin Edwards.

Lot: 22	A Koom Valley FDC with the addition of a Royal Mail Christmas stamp and Wincanton frank 1st November. I believe real Flatalists like this sort of thing.	Sold to
	Final bid
	Donated by Bernard & Isobel

Lot: 23	10 inch x 10 inch, ruby red, pure Dupion silk scatter cushion, featuring a professionally hand-embroidered central panel depicting a green and gold dragon. Potential bidders are reminded that a dragon cushion is for life, not just for Hogswatch.	Sold to
	Final bid
	Donated by Origin Publishing via Mithith Beathly

Lot: 24	A Hogswatch Post Office opening FDC from December 2004.	Sold to
	Final bid
	Donated by the inimitable Isobel & Bernard

Lot: 25	A cake! A Hogswatch cake (as put out for general consumption last year). There'll be one for folk to eat in the shop again but this way you get an entire one....	Sold to
	Final bid
	Mixed, baked, decorated and donated by Dragonlady

Lot: 26	This is the original sketch our own dwmook created for the envelope exchange on this forum. It's signed and includes a hand written message that is slightly different from the the word processed one that appears on the envelopes.	Sold to
	Final bid
	Created and donated by Dwmook!

The Cunning Artificer.

You know what he does.

You know where he does it.

Now I come to think about it, this adverts a bit of a waste of space, really.. Still, I suppose it's possible you found this catalogue blowing across the street, or wrapped around your chips, so here are the details anyway.
